

I truly beleive that the "Do Not Call List" defintely should not be weakened. The telemarketers have signed up to committing themselves in agreement with law, and now they want to change their minds. I don't think so. It is a pleasure now to come home and not receive all of those unwanted calls at all unreasonable hours.

Please take note and consider our voice.

Thank you.